Character, Style and Breath taking Views

This property can be rented furnished or unfurnished

Set in the treetops, as soon as you step into this stylish, fully renovated home you will be captivated by one of the best outlooks in Mt Eliza. Incredibly you can watch the sun rise over Westernport Bay in the morning and watch a storm roll in the evening overlooking the Moorooduc Plains.

Upstairs boasts an impressive master suite including air con, a walk-in robe and stylishly renovated ensuite is positioned to capture the view from bed, or you could wander through the glass door onto the private balcony. Four further bedrooms, one of which could also be a spacious study, share a matching family bathroom, built in robes and access to private decks.

Other features include double garage and carport, ducted heating and garden care included in the rent.

Please note the wood fire and chandelier are for decorative purposes only
